

RE: Books for Schools

We have signed up for a great new collection scheme that could provide us with hundreds of new books for the school library, and we would like your help.

From January 11, Books for Schools tokens will appear every day in the Times and The Sunday Times. We can exchange these tokens for free books of our choice from a catalogue of 170 titles.

There will be 12 tokens printed every week, and with books starting at only 10 tokens, you don't have to be a regular Times reader to really make a difference to our collection.

Please collect as many tokens as you can and give them to your child to bring to school. Tokens can be deposited in our special collection boxes, or given to a member of staff. Why not ask your employer or other local business to collect on the school's behalf as well? We can provide you with a copy of a letter to assist with approaching these companies.

We will be placing our first book order at the end of the spring term, so please make sure we have all your tokens before the Easter holidays begin.

With your help we can make a real difference to our children's library, ensuring that they have access to some of the very best titles available to encourage them to read and improve their literacy.

Many thanks, in advance, for your help.

Yours,

Pat Lockwood
